

The 12 June 1923 Guelma earthquake

A033¹, 14 June 1923 – La terre tremble à Bône. Bône, 13 juin (dncp) – Une légère secousse sismique a ébranlé la région dans la nuit du 11 au 12 courant. Il n'y a pas eu de dégâts.

Important Note : This earthquake is known as Guelma earthquake according to AIPGS (1923) by Hée who assigned an intensity VI on the Rossi Forel scale at Guelma. However, we couldn't find information justifying such intensity. All what we found is the information above reporting that the earthquake was slightly felt to the north at Bône.
